HOLM WANTS TO PLEAD OWN CASE

Acts So Queerly That Judge Diehl Has Him Taken Before Insanity Commission.

ESTABLISHES HIS SANITY

Later the Man Is Remanded to Jail to Be Tried for Petit Larceny.

Charles F. Holm, who has twice confessed to the crime of housebreaking, appeared in the Police court Thursday and undertook to defend himself on the charge of petit larceny. Holm first filed with the court two of the most unique demurrers ever seen in a local court, in which he set forth his reasons why he ought not to be tried on the charge. In both demurrers he set forth that he had once been in jeopardy for the alleged offense, and that the court had no right to try him again. He also demanded that at least a dozen witnesses, some of them inmates of the State prison, be subpoenned in his behalf.

Holm announced that he was ready to argue both demurrers and demanded that he be given a copy of the statutes. He announced that as lawyers took advantage of technicalities of the law, he speech and action of the man the court and those present thought Holm was mentally unbalanced, and his honor announced that he would continue the case until today and that in the meantime he would try to secure an attorney to look after the interests of the de-

Helm declared that he had had an the attorneys that he wanted, but the court overruled his objection.

Holm's first appearance in the Police court was several months ago, when he was arrested on the charge of having stolen a quantity of copper wire from the Utah Light and Railway company.

At that time he made a strong plea for stolen a quantity of copper wire from the Utah Light and Railway company. At that time he made a strong plea for leniency on the ground that he was a hard-working man, had a large family to keep and did not know that he was doing wrong in taking the wire. He received a light sentence in the county pail. The day following his release he was arrested on the charge of having stolen a quantity of beef and mutton from a Commercial street restaurant. He was charged with house-breaking and entered a plea of guilty to the charge. He was bound over to the district court and when the case was called before Judge Armstrong, Holm again entered a plea of guilty and begged that he be sent to the State prison. The court, however, did not think that Holm understood just what he was doing and appointed an attorney to represent him. Before the case came to trial it was discovered that the State did not have evidence sufficient

P. J. Moran has lost his sait against the city for $150 a day bouns in connection with the building of the Big Cottonwood conduit, which he claimed he completed eighty-eight days ahead of the time stipulated in the contract. The jury which has been hearing the case in the district court before Judge Eitchie returned a scaled verdict at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. The verdict case Moran $2700, which was the opened Thursday morning. The verdict gave Moran $2700, which was the amount tendered him by the Board of Works when the work was completed. The case has been before the court for several days.

MAYOR REFUSES TO APPROVE

However, There Will Be Appointed Two

Mayor Thompson has refused to approve the action of the Council in adopting the Finance committee's report authorizing the appointment of two probation officers for the Juvenile court, to be paid by the city. He has not vetoed the matter, however, and it will become law in five days' time, which will insure the officers to the court. But one name is mentioned so far, that of Guardella Brown, who was formerly connected with the police department.

The Mayor finally approved the action of the Council in reducing the bond of Zimmerman & Lloyd, who have the lease of the privileges at Liberty Probation Officers.

Tunnel On Mine Said to Have Developed Large Body of Fair Ore. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 24.-Don Maguire reports that the Illinois tunnel on the Napoleon & Maghera, which is to be the deep-working andit on the property, has cut the vein at 400 feet exactly, the distance that the surveys showed, and at a depth, vertically, of 300 feet. The point of intersection, which is nearly at right angles to the north vein, showed a width of twenty-eight feet. Samples of the vein show copper contents of from 1 to 5 per cent for the average of the vein but with chutes of high-grade copper ore crossing through the vein matter at an angle that run high in copper values. These are carrying bornite and chalcopyrite, and when the extraction begins such ores will be taken out and shipped direct to the smelters, while the lower grades, running from 2 to 15 per cent copper, will be treated in the new concentrator which is to be erected at the foot of the mountain and which will be connected with the Illinois tunnel with an aerial trainway, about 2500 feet in length.

In the drift from the point of intersection of the vein it is proposed—and the work is now in progress—to drive eastward in the vein. It is soft, and the men, of whom there are three shifts, are making from five to six feet per day, owing to the soft character of the vein matter. The orea carry, in addition to the copper contents, $2 per ton in gold and up to 5 ounces silver per ton in the low grades, and these proportions are cut the vein at 400 feet exactly, the dis-

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in the country has such a record of cures of female ills, and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pink-ham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction, Address, Lynn, Mass.

While the sun of Thursday was warm, the winds of Thursday were rather chilly. The clearness of the air and the whiffs from mountains and canyons that the breezes brought more than compensated for the slight coolness.

While the doctor said he had got out of practice the last couple of days and must wait for a little while before he really gets his hand in, he is willing to suggest that Sunday excursions may be pretty safely planned. As far as he can see westward, there is no sullen "low headed Zionward, at least not one that can reach here by the Sabbath day. The doctor is anxious to get into Zion's good graces after a brief desertion and vows he will do his best from now on.

Denver, the city beautiful, is appropriately covered with a mantle of it, snow falling Thursday and making the people there believe that winter not only was lingering in the lap of spring, but had sat down on spring good and hard and was ruling the roost.

From the middle Rocky Mountains to the Great Lakes there is a downpour of rain reported, with heavy precipitations at Kansas City and St Louis. Los Angeles, too, was given a slight dose of water Thursday.

Spring is getting some great discouragement in North Dakota, the theremometer recording 14 above zero. All these reports, however, are just so much more proof to the loyal residents of Zion that the city by the lake is the finest place in the world when it comes to climate, particularly as our weather man says no more chilliness, and only enough rain to be refreshing.
